Re: United States v. Galanis, S3 16 Cr. 371 (RA)

Dear Judge Abrams:

I represent Devon Archer. I write to respectfully request the Court's permission for Mr. Archer to travel this week on business from December 11 to 12, 2024, to Antigua. As has been the case on each of Mr. Archer's prior travel requests, he has apprised the Court's Pretrial Services Office and the Government of his anticipated international travel. Pretrial Services and the Government both take no position. A copy of Mr. Archer's proposed flight and lodging information is attached as Exhibit A, which we respectfully request to be filed under seal.

As the Court is aware, Mr. Archer has travelled internationally with the Court's permission on fifty-one prior occasions, to Jamaica, Italy, England, Spain, France, Latvia, Lithuania, Russia, Kazakhstan, the United Arab Emirates, Vietnam, China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, Mexico, the Philippines, the Turks and Caicos Islands, Ukraine, Serbia, the French Antilles, the Bahamas, and Antigua. If the Court permits him to travel, Mr. Archer will report to his Pretrial Services Officer while he is away as directed by Pretrial Services, and of course the open-ended waiver of extradition that Mr. Archer previously signed is still effective. Accordingly, I respectfully request permission for Mr. Archer to take the trip described in the attached exhibit.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

/s/ Craig Wenner
